PRESBYTERY NEWS

Reflection from Executive Presbyter, Wendy Tajima--Languages

Remembering those who passed away in 2020. During our November Presbytery Meeting, we will remember members of our Presbytery and friends of the Presbytery who passed away in 2020. If your community lost a ruling elder or teaching elder would you contact Rev. Ally Lee at ally@sangabpres.org with a photo, their full name, and their relationship to your community.

Registration is open for the 2020 Tapestry Youth Fall Retreat. This virtual retreat will take place November 6-8 on Zoom. The retreat is open to youth grades 6th to 12th. Click here to sign up.

Are there students in your ministries who are interested in talking more about racial justice? Tapestry Youth Collective is partnering with LA Voice to form a Belong Circle for students to connect and discuss racial justice. The groups starts October 25. There are spots available! Click here to sign up.

Can't Hide Behind Not Being Controversial: Racial Healing
Wednesday, Oct. 21 at 7:00 p.m.
Facilitated by Kyle Scates, LCSW - Bio found here.

With all that is occurring in our world, many are wondering what their role is and what they can do as Christians. One of the things the Gospel asks us to do is to bear one another's burdens. Our conversation on Racial Healing will focus on how justice, empathy, reconciliation, and compassion can promote racial equality and healing.

Join us! All are invited!
To register send an email with your name to carolewheeler@pacbell.net by Monday, Oct. 19. You will receive the Zoom meeting link the day before.
