Coalition on Spirituality and Aging

New Theological Seminary of the West

Spirituality and Aging Certificate Program

Aging is one of the last endeavors, common to all people, that has yet to be understood. Our time is full of anti-aging messages which minimize the contributions of our elders. Yet, elders themselves can nevertheless be influenced by these anti-aging biases. How do we counteract these negative influences? We, the Coalition on Spirituality and Aging, believe that the key to approaching aging creatively and effectively is through spirituality.

As an affiliate of the New Theological Seminary of the West, we have developed an online, master's level course on the interplay between spirituality and the experience of aging. Our mission is to engage community organizations as well as faith communities in creating vibrant services and ministries that support and celebrate older adults by empowering leaders with current knowledge about aging in the context of spirituality.

Course Schedule:

Orientation: Saturday, September 18
Course 1: Saturday, October 16
Course 2: Saturday, November 20
Course 3: Saturday, January 15
