nuclear and extended family. Ann has had a 30+ year call to minister to the marginalized and work to provide housing to women in the SFV. The LAPD hears concerns about the unhoused from individuals, businesses, and residential neighborhoods in the Valley.

How have unhoused people been viewed by your churches? What experiences have you had living in Los Angeles County? What faithful responses have worked and which ones have failed?

This will not be the last presentation on this topic. Come prepared with questions and ideas for future themes that relate to improving lives in our neighborhoods.
