PRESBYTERY NEWS

A Good Day, reflection by Executive
Presbyter Rev. Wendy Tajima

New cases of COVID are on the rise again. Please remember that it's still highly recommended that people wear masks indoors in our churches, for the sake of people with health vulnerabilities, and families with children who are still too young to be vaccinated. And for those who are eligible, you can get your second booster!

ETHNIC CONCERNS CONSULTATION
ZEPHYR POINT, LAKE TAHOE
OCTOBER 7-9, 2022

ECC is dedicated to bringing education and awareness of the concerns of ethnic groups to churches and all of Christendom.

ECC is a place of encouragement that provides avenues for ethnic groups to be connected to and involved in the ministry of the PC(USA). All are welcome to join us at Zephyr Point in October as we come together to enable spiritual growth and cultural awareness and learn how the ECC will advocate for racial and economic justice issues in the church and society.

For more information and to register for these events, visit
<http://www.zephyrpoint.org/programs> or call 775-588-5769 ext. 113

The Ethnic Concerns Consultation, an annual conference that has been led and supported by Bryce Little for decades (he invited me to be the speaker in 2016), sponsored by what is now North Central California Presbytery (the merger of Sacramento and Stockton presbyteries). The October 7-9 event will have three of the most influential leaders in the PC(USA): Liz Theoharis, Co-Chair with William Barber of
