LA County Asks Faith Communities for Input on Addressing Homelessness

Since its inception, the Los Angeles County Homeless Initiative has been seeking to work hand in hand with faith-based organizations to serve vulnerable communities. Now, it is taking steps to strengthen and deepen that partnership, and to develop a strategic plan for continued collaboration.

The Homeless Initiative is currently asking leaders of faith-based organizations to fill out a 15-minute survey to better understand the support and services they provide to people experiencing homelessness or living in poverty, and to gauge their interest in expanding these efforts.

PSF church leaders are invited to

Sam Naylor's Ministry in Ukraine

Please join us in welcoming Sam Naylor and his wife Yulia to Northminster Presbyterian Church in Diamond Bar on July 24th as they share about their recent hands-on mission work with Christian churches in Eastern Ukraine as they have struggled to house and feed members of their community uprooted by the war with Russia. Sam has been working directly along with other churches in Eastern Europe to get relief supplies into the affected communities as well as provide means of transportation out of those areas.

We invite you to join them and us at our 10:00 am worship service to hear Sam's message to us as brothers and sisters in Christ with churches in Ukraine.

Northminster Presbyterian Church is located at 400 Rancheria Rd, Diamond Bar, 91765 (corner of Golden Springs Dr. and Rancheria Rd).

All are welcome to join us at Zephyr Point in October as we come together to enable spiritual growth and cultural awareness and learn how the ECC will advocate for racial and economic justice issues in the church and society.

For more information and to register for these events, visit <http://www.zephyrpoint.org/programs> or call 775-588-5769 ext. 113.

The Ethnic Concerns Consultation, an annual conference that has been led and supported by Bryce Little for decades (he invited me to be the speaker in 2016), sponsored by what is now North Central California Presbytery (the merger of Sacramento and Stockton presbyteries).
