DONATE ITEMS NEEDED BY MIGRANTS LEAVING DETENTION

COLLECTION AT NOVEMBER 18 PRESBYTERY MEETING

Migrants leaving detention need jackets, sweatshirts, and blankets as winter approaches, since many do not have clothes that are adequate for cold weather. They also need carry-on size luggage (rolling bags or duffel bags) to put their things in.

The Adelanto Visitation and Advocacy Network (AVAN) is collecting new and gently used jackets, sweatshirts, blankets, and carry-on size luggage to give to migrants upon their release. All donated items must be clean and in good shape.

Our Immigrant Accompaniment Organizer, Wendy Gist, will collect donations at the November 18th Presbytery meeting, and deliver them to AVAN.

Questions? Email Wendy Gist.

OFFERING FOR NOVEMBER PRESBYTERY MEETING - TWO WAYS TO GIVE

At our Nov. 18th meeting, Presbytery commissioners are invited to bring two kinds of offering. In addition to outerwear, blankets, and luggage for those being released from detention (details provided to the right), we will be collecting gift cards which will help our Native neighbors to meet needs. The Gabrielino-Tongva Band of Mission Indians will give to any Native Americans in the Los Angeles area. LA has the largest Native population. Suggested gift cards are for groceries or gas, up to $25.

If you choose to donate during registration, those funds will be used to procure additional gift cards for distribution by the tribal office.

INVITING PASTORS TO SAMPLE PRESBYTERY-WIDE LENT SERIES

Please mark Tuesday, November 28, 2pm-3:30pm to discuss a promising option for the Presbytery to come together for the season of Lent.

We have received a grant to experience together how we can be Growing as the Beloved Community. For details, we will hold a Zoom meeting to discuss the series and get a sense for how it will be led. We are hoping for participation from across the Presbytery, and are seeking your input and support.

More news to come to your inbox.
